18th Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 5, 2018

From: Fr. Tony Hesse:

A couple of weeks ago, Bishop LeVoir included the following quote from Pope Francis in his weekly Update to the parishes. "No Christian proclaims the Gospel on 'his own,' but is only sent by the Church, which has received the mandate from Christ himself. It is Baptism, in fact, which makes us missionaries. A baptized person who doesn't feel the need to proclaim the Gospel, to proclaim Jesus, isn't a good Christian." (Angelus message on July 15, 2018)

It reminded me of the importance of sharing our Lord's message, while at the same time, reminding ourselves it is His message that we are called to proclaim. I want to thank all who have come and will be coming to the funerals that we have had in our area these weeks. Yes, burying the dead is one of the corporal works of mercy, however, I also think attending funerals and wake services are also wonderful message of love that are being proclaimed to the family and friends of the decedent. Also, thanks to those who proclaimed the message of compassion by assisting at the wake services and funerals (both during the services and the lunches).

Finally, just a heads up, unless the morning Mass times conflict with the times for funerals, my plan is to still have both the morning Mass and the funeral. However, like I said earlier please join us as we pray for the deceased at the funeral. Finally, some people continue to ask whether they can receive Holy Communion at both, here is the answer: The Code of Canon Law (No. 917) states, "A person who has received the Most Holy Eucharist may receive it again on the same day only during the celebration of the Eucharist in which the person participates, with due regard for the prescription of Canon 921, 2." In other words, a person may receive Holy Communion twice a day.
