31st Sunday in Ordinary Time November 4, 2018

From: Fr. Tony Hesse:

“Ecce, Homo! Behold, the Man!” Although these words were that words that Pilate declared as he presented Jesus in Jerusalem to the angry crowd, I hope we don’t feel the same about the new man in our midst. It is official, Fr. Christian Adike is here. Some of you have been blessed by his presence these last couple of days, and I pray that you will be blessed with his presence in the future. He is from Nigeria and has been assigned to help our area out now that Fr. Bob has retired. By the way, please keep both of them in your prayers. Fr. Christian will share a little something in next week’s bulletin about himself. Stay tuned...

Also, we were blessed with God’s beauty these last several weeks in the color and the beautiful weather that allowed our farmers to get into the fields. We are also blessed with some wonderful fall colors in our churches with our Fall environments, and now, as we remember to pray for the souls of our loved one’s this month, we will also be blessed with the wonderful names and memories of those who have gone before us. Please remember to pray for the souls of those who have died, not only those of our families and friends, but for all those who are in need of God’s mercy. May God’s eternal rest be granted to them and His eternal light shine upon them.

Speaking of prayers, as a fellow hunter, please keep those who are hunting and all who are near them in your prayers this hunting season. Every year, as I sit in my stand, I pray that all will be kept safe and that we will be free of any hunting accidents. Please join me in this prayer. I am also attaching St. Hubert’s prayer. He is the patron saint of hunters. Fittingly, his feast day is this weekend, November 3rd.

“Glorious St. Hubert, in your passion for hunting, God revealed Himself to you. As we gather for this Holy Hunt, may you keep us safe from injury, make us honest in our count of game, respecting the limits of game that can be taken in order to preserve the balance of life and death and foster a love of truth in our telling of hunting tales. Help our aim to bring down game in a manner where it does not suffer and grant us success. Lord, you made us in your image and likeness and gave us dominion over all creation. As You have made St. Hubert a hunter for souls, make me a hunter for souls for You above all other hunting activities. Let this Holy Hunt be a time to uplift and refresh the soul. Keep us safe. Make us proud of our harvest, generous with the meat, and thankful in all circumstances. May all the actions of the rest of my life be a constant hunt for you, O Lord. Amen”

2018 DMA APPEAL

This past week the 2018 Diocesan Ministries Appeal packets were mailed to all homes in the diocese. This year’s theme is, “A Gift of Self.” The DMA offers us an opportunity to do our part to support the ministries that help to build the Church right here in the Diocese of New Ulm—ministries and services that no single parish could provide. Each one of us has been blessed by God’s generosity and for that reason; we have a spiritual need and desire to return some of that blessing back to God. If you are able, please consider becoming a member or continuing a membership in the Bishop’s Guild for those who contribute $1,000 or more to the DMA. Next weekend we will see the DMA video. Be assured that your gift will only be used to support those ministries designated in the DMA brochure and no other.
